Privacy Policy

Effective Date: December 3rd, 2019

Intratec Solutions is Committed to Protecting your Privacy.

Intratec recognizes the importance of privacy, security and data protection to its customers worldwide.

The purpose of this Privacy Policy is to emphasize Intratec’s commitment to privacy and inform Intratec practices regarding this matter, including: the types of information collected by Intratec, how Intratec uses such information, how long Intratec keeps this information, who Intratec shares this information with and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected online and how it is used.

This document is part of Intratec Legal Documents.

Types of Information We Collect

This Privacy Policy covers personal information, non-personal data collection, and aggregate reporting.

- Personal information is information that is associated with your name or personal identity. On some pages within our websites, you can request information. The types of personal information you provide to us on these pages may include name, address, phone number, email address, user IDs and passwords and contact preferences.

- Non-personal information is data about usage and service operation that is not associated with a specific personal identity. Intratec collects and analyzes non-personal information to evaluate how visitors use the Intratec websites. Non-personal data we collect may include the pages visited on the Intratec websites, unique URLs visited within www.Intratec.com, browser type, and IP address. Most non-personal data is collected via cookies or other analysis technologies. Intratec’s web pages use cookies, web beacons, and other technologies for data analysis and personalization services.
How We Use Your Information

Personal data collected online may be combined with information you provide to Intratec through other sources, such as public events. Personal data given to Intratec may be transferred across state and country borders for the purposes of data consolidation, storage, and simplified customer information management.

Non-personal data gathered from Intratec’s websites is aggregated for reporting about usability, performance, and effectiveness. It is used to improve the customer experience, usability, and site content.

Once you choose to provide Intratec with personal information, Intratec will use the information to better understand your needs and interests and to better serve you with respect to Intratec products and services.

More specifically, Intratec may use personal information to:

1. Provide secure password controlled access to Subscriber and/or Authorized Users for access to Intratec Reports and Data;
2. Identify Subscribers and/or Authorized Users of Intratec Reports and Data for the purposes of providing, tracking and recording maintenance and support to/for such users
3. Review how, when, where and by whom Intratec Reports and Data is accessed and used;
4. Notify Authorized Users of updates to www.intratec.us and new product offerings that Intratec may introduce;

How Long We keep Your Information

Personal information will be kept as long as it is required to fulfil the purposes Intratec collected it for, as described above, or until a user requests that Intratec deletes that information.

Who We Share Your Information With

Intratec will not sell, rent, or lease your personal information to others. Information submitted to us is only available to our employees managing this information for purposes of contacting you or sending you emails based on your request for information.

Intratec may disclose your personal information to other companies which assist Intratec in providing you goods or services. This may include, but is not limited to, billing services, transaction managers, credit verification services, and other third-party service providers.
Intratec may be required to disclose personal information and information collected via cookies or web beacons; in connection with law enforcement, fraud prevention, regulation, and other legal action, or, as Intratec may deem necessary in its sole discretion, in order to protect its legitimate legal and business interests.

Collection of Information from Children

Intratec Website and Intratec Products are not intended for children under the age of 18 (“minors”). Intratec does not seek information from children. Those under 18 should not provide Intratec with any information without the involvement of a parent or guardian.

Access to Your Information

You have the right to access the personal information you provide to Intratec. If you would like to have the personal information provided to Intratec deleted from Intratec databases, please make a request by email to dataprivacy@intratec.us

No Notice of Updates

Intratec reserves the right to modify or change this Privacy Policy from time to time without notice. The latest version will be available on the Site. Your election to continue use of the Site, after the date of posting of these modifications to the Privacy Policy constitutes acceptance of those modifications.
